

Request for Supervision

Dear Guang Zhang Professor,

I wish you all the best. My name is Bin Ammar from Yemen, and I am writing to express my strong interest in pursuing a Ph.D. in International politics at Xiamen University. Your expertise is closely related to my research interests, which focus on Islamic politics with a greater focus on my home country of Yemen. I am eager to contribute to the ongoing research work at Xiamen University. My academic journey has prepared me for the challenges and opportunities of the doctoral program. I completed my master's degree at Lanzhou University, where I focused on the Belt and Road Initiative and the development of Yemen, China-Yemen relations, risk assessment of the Belt and Road in Yemen, and prospects for relations between the two countries. I am confident that Xiamen University's rigorous academic environment and outstanding faculty and staff will provide me with an ideal platform to further develop my research skills and make meaningful contributions to the field. I understand the high standards and expectations that come with pursuing a PhD at Xiamen University and am fully committed to meeting and exceeding these standards. I am passionate about participating in collaborative research projects, attending academic seminars, and contributing to the academic community at Xiamen University. I kindly ask you to give me the opportunity to discuss joining your research team and registering as a doctoral student under your guidance. I would appreciate the opportunity to schedule a virtual meeting or teleconference to further discuss my academic background, research interests, and how I can contribute to your research project. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to being part of the outstanding academic community at Xiamen University and working under your guidance. Your guidance will be critical in helping me achieve my academic and research goals. Please feel free to contact me via email (yahya2021@lzu.edu.cn) or phone (15393147814). I will be more than happy to provide any additional information or materials if required.

.Thank you for your time and consideration

,With regards
